City Council Calls
for Beer Vote

Another large crowd was present at the called meeting of the city council last evening, where the second reading of the ordinance permitting possession and transportation of beer was read.

A petition bearing more than 200 names was presented to the council asking that beer of 3.2 be sold in this city.

After much arguing back and forth the council decided to submit the proposition to the voters at an election to be held in Carmel May 15th. The following propositions will be voted upon:

Proposition No. 1

Shall the sale of malt and vinous beverages, authorized for beverage purposes under the National Prohibition act, as amended, be made lawful in the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea, under such reasonable regulations as the council thereof may prescribe?

Proposition No. 2

Shall groceries and drug stores in the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea be authorized to sell bottled alcoholic malt and vinous beverages as legalized under the National Prohibition Act, as amended, for consumption off the premises where sold under such reasonable regulations as the Council of said city may prescribe?

Proposition No. 3

Shall hotels and restaurants and eating houses in the city of Carmel-by-the-Sea be authorized to sell alcoholic malt and vinous beverages as legalized under the National Prohibition Act, as amended, for consumption on the premises where sold with lunches or meals under such reasonable regulations as the Council of said city may prescribe?

Mayor Catlin asked Councilman Heron to take the chair and he himself moved the adoption of the resolution with the exception of Proposition 2 and 3. The motion was lost.

Councilman Kellogg moved the adoption of the resolution as read, and her motion carried.

CARMEL FIREMEN MEET

AND ELECT NEW OFFICERS

At the regular meeting of the firemen last evening, the following officers were elected for the year:

Keith Evans, chairman; Charles Guth, vice chairman; Jack Black, secretary; and Ed Kaiser, treasurer.

Installation will take place at the next regular meeting, the first Thursday night in May, when it is planned to have a banquet and a social hour.

Routine business was cared for. There have been three calls for the department so far this year.

ROBERT LEIDIG WILL SPEAK AT MEETING

R. G. Leidig, fire chief of Carmel, will give a paper at the Tri-County Firemen's association to be held at Santa Cruz tomorrow evening. Mr. Leidig's subject will be "Brush and Grass Fires."

In speaking of fire prevention work Mr. Leidig expressed himself as being much opposed to the proposal of doing away with the office of state fire marshal. The salary, he said, is paid by a license levied on the cleaners and they are glad to pay for the protection they receive from his instructions and supervision.

"It is false economy to do away with this office," Mr. Leidig said, "since our fire marshal, J. W. Stevens, has obtained the cooperation of more fire chiefs in the United States, Canada and Mexico than has ever been obtained before. In the past four years he has united all sectional associations into an international association of more than 16,000 members and has educated the public to be fire conscious."

Mr. Leidig said, tapping on wood, that Carmel had few fires, which fact he laid to prevention work done here. The fire department is planning another "clean-up" week and are hoping for the co-operation they have received in the past.

WORK TO BEGIN SOON

FOR LEIDIG GROCERY

Mrs. Florence Leidig informed a reporter for Carmel Sun that building will begin in a few days on the remodeling of the building for her grocery. The necessary papers have all been signed and the contracts let.

Watch Carmel Sun next week for an announcement from Leidig's.

CAMPS OF WORKERS

NINE MILES APART

The two camps of workmen are now only nine miles apart, according to Barnet Segal, who accompanied Clinton Schlosser, state highway engineer on a trip to the end of the Big Sur highway last Thursday.

By the end of the year, Mr. Segal said, there will be a temporary road connecting the highway coming from the south and this end of the construction. Mr. Segal and Mr. Schlosser drove 47 miles over the new road.

STATE MAY PASS BILL

MAKING TAX HOLIDAY

(Monterey Herald, April 12)
The assembly today approved a 60 day tax moratorium.

Provisions of the bill, introduced by Assemblyman Sam Greene, Inglewood, authorized an extension of the date taxes become delinquent from April 20 to June 20. The measure was passed unanimously and sent to the senate.

The moratorium would apply to all local taxes assessed by cities, districts and counties due April 20.

The San Francisco delegation vigorously attacked the bill on the ground it would seriously hamper San Francisco county's $600,000 monthly relief program. It was explained the metropolis is operating on a cash basis and the moratorium would cut down tax revenue necessary to carry on relief work.

Vote With Majority
San Francisco cannot, it was contended, issue tax anticipation warrants as long as it operates on a cash basis.

When its protests appeared futile, the delegation decided to vote with the majority.

Proposed amendments providing the board of supervisors could use their own discretion in enacting the tax moratorium in the several counties, failed of adoption.

The bill carries an urgency clause—this so, it will, if passed, become effective April 20.

MRS. JOHN W. MERCER

IS HOSTESS AT PARTY

Mrs. John Walter Mercer of New York City was hostess last Thursday evening at a formal supper and dance, which took place at the Hotel Del Monte, in celebration of the end of the prohibition on beer and wine.

At exactly one minute past midnight, the water goblets were removed from the supper table, and replaced by huge old-fashioned steins of beer, and bottles of the new wine.

Unusual place cards, which were miniature copies of famous old paintings, indicated the seating of the guests.

The guests were Mr. and Mrs. George Seidenbeck, Mr. and Mrs. John Abernethy, Dr. and Mrs. Dean Seabrook, Mrs. Stella Stafford Mather, Miss Glenna Peck, Mrs. Taylor, Mr. Herbert Heron, Mr. McMenamin, Mr. Segal and Mr. Chandler.

Mrs. Mercer, whose home is in New York City, has spent many summers in Carmel, and she and Mr. Mercer plan to buy in Pebble Beach when they find a place that suits them.

MRS. C. J. RYLAND IS

HOSTESS AT BRIDGE TEA

Mrs. C. J. Ryland was the charming hostess at a Bridge tea given at her home Friday afternoon to a number of friends. The house was artistically decorated in spring wild flowers and a buffet luncheon was served while the hostess' small daughter, Peggy Ann, delighted the ladies with piano solos.

The following were present: Mrs. H. B. Pattison, Mrs. B. F. Wright, Mrs. Harold O. Sands, Mrs. William Lee, Mrs. John Abernethy, Mrs. David Scripture, Mrs. Stella Stafford Mather, Mrs. Karl Burrows, Mrs. Dean Seabrook, Mrs. J. B. McCarthy, Mrs. Elizabeth Titus, Mrs. Ray DeVoe, Mrs. W. E. Heathorne, Mrs. Willard W. McGraw, Mrs. Adam Darling, Mrs. Frank Adams Huffer, Mrs. Katherine MacFarland Howe, Mrs. H. F. Nye, Mrs. Arthur Metz, Mrs. Russell E. Goodnow and Mrs. John Walter Mercer of New York City.

CARMEL VISITORS ARE

HONORED AT PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Johnston of Hayward, house guests of the Tom Douglass family, were honored at a bridge party at the home of Mrs. Charles Watson on San Carlos Tuesday night. High score was made by Mr. Guilford and Mrs. Rubin and low by Mr. Pearson and Mrs. Wills. The honor guests received pretty gifts and a special prize was awarded Mrs. Exley. The guest list comprised: Messrs. and Mesdames Oliver Watson, H. S. Johnston, Miles Bain, Grant Wills, William Exley, and Schrock and daughter, Carl Pearson, Bert Guilford, Mrs. Alfreda Hayes, Mrs. Charles Rubin, Miss Mary Douglass, Scott Douglass and Mrs. Robert Overly.

TIMES ARE BETTER

PICTURES SELLING

Miss Heath, well known Carmel artist, told a Carmel Sun reporter that if the sale of pictures indicated a return to good times, things were now looking up since she had within the past month sold seven, a greater number than for the past many months.

Several of Miss Heath's paintings are on display at the office of Bostick & Wood, but the paintings which were sold were taken at Miss Heath's studio.

Real estate agents report unusual activity in the sale of real estate, the best since the depression. They also report that houses are filling earlier this year than usual.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Rico on North Lincoln have as their guests for the summer Mrs. Margaret Mas and daughter of San Diego.

COMMUNITY GUILD PLANS FOR COOKED FOOD SALE

At the regular meeting of the Community Guild at the church last evening, it was decided to hold a cooked food sale Saturday to help with financing the church. Many cakes, pies, salads, etc., were promised. The sale will be held in the building between Minges Grocery and Carmel Cleaners.

Twenty-eight members and friends were present at the meeting and enjoyed an interesting hour.

The club has a novel plan in that each member has a "rose" and the rose prepares pleasant little surprises throughout the year for the one to which she has been assigned. No one knows who her rose is until the end of the year.

It is not unusual for a member of this organization to find at any time a gift mysteriously placed where she will come across it in her day's duties.

ANNIE LAURIE WRITES OF CARMEL'S MAYOR

In her column in the Examiner last Sunday Annie Laurie writes of Carmel, addressing her note to Sinclair Lewis, as follows:

"Take Carmel for instance, that's where you are at present so I hear. Run up to the village Blacksmith and have a talk with old John Catlin—he'll tell you all about the constitution and by laws of the state of California, but what he knows, or cares, about neighbor Johnson's new roof to his hen house amounts to very little, let me tell you."

"Step into the village grocery and try to get a chew of tobacco and an hour or so of light village comedy and you'll find your grocer reading Kant or Karl Marx or somebody to that effect."

The little milliner just around the corner went to the Beaux Arts in that so gay Paris, and her sister, the village dressmaker, danced in the ballet at La Scala—if that's how you spell it.

"Pretty Polly Hopkins, the village school teacher—why, she hiked her way through the Black Forest last year, and the man who cuts the lawn can give you excuses for his bad work in half a dozen different languages."

MRS. GERTRUDE WALL
MOVES TO THIS CITY

Mrs. Gertrude Wall, who has conducted the pottery school in the post office building for some time, has moved to Carmel and with her son, Richard, has taken the Hanson cottage on Lincoln, near Fifth.

Carmel is glad to have the Walls become residents and Carmel Sun predicts they will find many friends since Mrs. Wall not only makes lovely pottery, but also paints, and Richard is starting on his career as a writer.

Last week, Mrs. Wall had an exhibition of her students' work at Stackpole's showing tiles, bowls and boxes, made by Miss Marjorie Pegram, Misses Rose and Lena Tavener, Miss Jane Elsten and Howard Stackpole.

Mrs. Wall's class meets each Friday and an evening class is being planned.

Miss Flora Gifford of Pasadena will also spend the summer in the Wall home.

The editor is pleased to submit this poem of Richard C. Wall:

Inspiration
A perfumed lotus of untarnished cream,
Shaded by the rustling willows
And watered by a purling stream,
Was roughly plucked by searching hands
And dying, folded it's fair face.

And the willows rustled and the stream gurgled,
While another grew, the first to replace.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Cockburn and daughter, and Ronald Cockburn and wife left today for a pleasure trip to Hollywood.

TONY LUHAN ENTERTAINS
NEXT SATURDAY NIGHT

Tony Luhan, famous Taos, N.M. Indian, who with his wife, is spending some time on Carmel Point, will entertain Saturday night at the Denny-Watrous gallery with Indian songs and his ancient drum, which came from the Santa Clara pueblo.

He will sing the songs of the Navajos, Apaches and many other tribes, and while he performs, he will sit in the middle of the room and his hearers will form a circle about him.

When Stokowski, leader of the Chicago Symphony orchestra went to Taos to make records of Indian music, he was a guest at the Luhan home and Mr. Luhan sang these songs for him. When the older men of the tribe pass away, the songs will be found only on records, since none of the young men are learning them.

This will undoubtedly be one of the most interesting programs ever heard in the gallery.

It is interesting to know that Mrs. Luhan is the writer, Mabel Dodge, who became famous with her "Lorenzo in Taos."

L. S. SLEVIN HAS

FINE LOT OF STAMPS

The editors of Carmel Sun had the opportunity Friday afternoon of seeing the fine display of revenue stamps which L. S. Slevin started saving "way back."

With the new beer law in effect, Mr. Slevin took his collection from the safe deposit box and placed it in his window for a few hours only. The collection contains 44 different varieties and is considered the finest in the state, each stamp being practically perfect. The oldest is dated 1871.

The prices paid for the stamps ranged from 12 1-2 cents for an eighth of a barrel to $1.00 a barrel, and $2.00 for a hoghead.

The stamps are about three inches square and are of richly embossed in shades of gold, greens, blues and reds.

MRS. RUEL KING IS HOSTESS AT BRIDGE

Mrs. Ruel King was hostess to eleven friends at a Bridge party at her home on Dolores and Fifth Thursday evening, her honor guest being her sister, Mrs. Decker, of Pacific Grove.

Mrs. Robert Overly made high score and was presented a lovely gift and Mrs. Ira Taylor received a pretty gift as consolation for making low score.

The following is the guest list: Mrs. Decker, Mrs. E. R. Douglas, Mrs. Ivan Kelsey, Mrs. Arthur Hilbert, Mrs. Ira D. Taylor, Mrs. Robert Overly, Mrs. O. A. Holm, Mrs. Melvin Lindstrom, Mrs. Robert Erickson, Mrs. John McKay and Mrs. Paul Stoney.

NEW DOCUMENTARY STAMPS
AT CARMEL POSTOFFICE

Postmaster W. L. Overstreet placed on sale last Monday morning federal documentary stamps, ranging in value from one cent to ten dollars.

These stamps are required principally for real estate, bond and stock transactions.

TAXES ARE DELINQUENT
AFTER THURSDAY, 20TH

Those who have neglected to pay their taxes will bear in mind that after the 20th of this month, a week from today, Thursday, the amount will become delinquent and the statutory penalty will be added.

Many have thought that the time limit had been extended but such is not the case so far.

OLD MISSION GUILD TO GIVE CARD PARTY

The Old Mission Guild held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. T. B. Reardon Monday and decided to hold a card party on Tuesday, May 2.

The proceeds will go toward the benefit of the church.

Sign Of The Cross
Opens Sunday

SIGN OF THE CROSS

By J. A. Kunstman

The alluring Claudette Colbert in the garb of Nero's Queen in "The Sign of the Cross" coming to the Carmel Theatre on April 16 and 17.

Spectacle upon spectacle, magnificent outdoing itself—Cecil B. DeMille's "The Sign of the Cross" is coming to the Carmel Theatre Sunday and Monday April 16 and 17.

Here is unfolded the whole pageant of Rome in the time of Nero at once the most dissolute and the most colorful period in Roman history. Here is the dramatic contrast between the palaces of the patrician Romans and the humble, hidden abodes of the early Christians, on the one hand the wicked Empress Poppaea in her luxurious bath of ass' milk; on the other, the Christian girl, Mercia, ministering to the tortured and hunted among the people of her faith.

And here, as a climax to the whole spectacle is the Circus Maximus with its gladiatorial combats, its battles between Amazons and dwarfs, its chariot races and its featured event; the feeding of the Christians to the lions. Here in short, is an unforgettable panorama of an age of blood and licentiousness and passion and majesty.

Frederick March and Claudette Colbert head the cast of 5000.

Mrs. Jessie Askew, who has been quite ill, seems to be improving. Her son, H. W. Askew, and daughter, Mrs. Fred Funchess, returned to their homes in Hanford Sunday. They were accompanied home by their little niece, Barbara Mylar, 5-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mylar, who will make a short visit there.

MILTON LATHAM IS CARMEL GOLF CHAMPION

Milton Latham is receiving congratulations from friends for having won the championship of the Carmel golf tournament played last Thursday, Friday and Saturday on the Pacific Grove municipal course.

This was the first tournament to be held by the Carmel players but was so thoroughly enjoyed that it will not be the last.

Mr. Latham defeated D. Stoney 1 up in the finals.

L. Stoney won second flight honors by defeating Dr. Williams 2 and 1 and in the third flight finals R. Bertram was victorious over P. Parkes while R. King won over D. Hale in the fourth.

Frank W. McGrury and family of Oakland are guests at the home of Mr. McGrury's brother, J. B. and family on Dolores. Mr. McGrury is a government employe.

SPORTS NEWS of the WEEK

Pilots Leading

Abalone League

By Doc Staniford

The outstanding feature of Sunday's game showed the Pilots in full possession of League leadership and almost a cinch to win the championship. The Giants, runners-up so far, will have to win all their remaining games and the Pilots lose all the rest of their games to even get a tie. The Shamrocks were eliminated as a possible contender as they were defeated by the Pilots in the final contest of the day. The Tigers came to life in the final stages of their game to breeze in ahead of the poor Giants—who seem to have the losing habit. The Giants started out right and were sailing along smooth seas, when they cracked wide open. When the dead and wounded were counted the Tigers had 17 runs—the Giants on the short end with 11 runs.

The starting pitchers of both teams were removed from the box, both Ammerman (Tigers) and Bardarson (Giants) were hit hard and had trouble finding the home plate. Gene Trenner, who replaced Ammerman, had better luck than his rival, Spike Tremayne, and pulled the game out of the fire for the Tigers. The Tigers and the Shamrocks will probably fight it out to see who will be the stellar champion.

Both teams are going good now and anything is likely to happen. The edge goes to the Shamrocks on account of Art Hilbert's pitching and they are a very dangerous team when they have their batting eyes, and they may still beat out the Giants for second place.

The Pilots proved without a question of doubt they are the best all around team in the community section, and won out in a hard pitcher's battle between Ed Files and Art Hilbert who tolled in vain for their teams. The Pilots got their hits bunched together and made the runs when they were needed but nevertheless it was anybody's game right up to the finish. Pandy Parker was the fair haired boy for the Pilots both in hitting and fielding and Ed Files pitched his usual good game and stopped the Shamrocks cold when it became necessary to clamp down and shut off runs. In the Club section, it's a good race, with Del Monte and Peninsula Clubs tied for first place and the Manzanita gang still in the ring right now. With Fred Godwin's great pitching the Peninsula Club looks like a good bet to cop first honors with the Del Monte outfit very much in the running and will make a tough fight to land on top. The Polo Club is out of the race entirely—too bad, this club looked good at the start, but lack of organization and failure to keep the personnel of the team intact, sacrificed any chances the team had to win. The Manzanita Club gave a good account of themselves and put up a hard stubborn effort to beat the Peninsula Club, but their best was not just good enough. The Country Club started off in the lead with seven runs but the Manzanita Club overhauled them in the fourth but the Country Club rammed over six runs in the sixth and that was enough to call it a day. Dick Catlett batted a 1,000 per cent getting five for five. Gordy Campbell got three out of four and so did Hary Aucourt. For the Country Club, Godwin, Warren, Townsend and Finley all hit hard and drove in plenty of runs. The Del Monte won from a pick-up team after the Polo Club failed to appear so they got credit for a win anyway. Gordy Campbell slammed out a couple home-runs for the pick up team and was largely responsible for keeping this team in the running. The Del Monte Club finally won by a score of 14 to 12.

Benefit Card Party

WEEK FROM TOMORROW

As a benefit for the Community church, the first post-Lenten public card party will be held at the home of Mrs. Gustav Laumeister, Dolores and Santa Lucia, Friday, April 21.

Cards will be played, beginning at 2 o'clock, and tea will be served from 4 until 6, 25 cents for cards and 25 cents for tea.

If you do not care for cards or if unable to come for the afternoon, bear in mind the tea hours.

Those who wish to play will please make reservations by calling 690W or 179J.

Carmel People Will

ATTEND TOURNAMENT

Many Carmel people will be attracted to the Badminton tournament which will be held in the new gymnasium of the Monterey Union high school Saturday and Sunday, from 10 a. m. to 11 p. m. each day.

Charles Van Riper, Charles Frost and Paul Whitman will be in charge. The event is open to the public and will be of great interest since it is the first to be held in the West, and entries have been made for enthusiasts all along the Pacific coast.

Pottery and Weaving

ARE OLDEST CRAFTS

Pottery and weaving are the oldest crafts, according to Mrs. Fraser, who has that interesting little weaving shop on Ocean.

Folk of the earliest times were bothered about what to eat and what to wear, it seems, and the pottery was made to cook in and eat from and the cloth for bodily comfort.

Mrs. Fraser said that all looms were fundamentally alike, although the loom she uses doesn't look much like the old carpet looms used by housewives in the Old South years ago.

"People come to Carmel expecting to find all of the crafts represented," said Mrs. Fraser, "and are very much disappointed to find there are only the four represented here, weaving, pottery making, woodcraft and iron-work."

Mrs. Fraser was weaving some beautiful cloth for a coat, which when taken from the loom will be shrunken and pressed before being used.

CARMEL RESIDENT WILL

HEAD COALINGA BANK

The following article taken from the Coalinga Record will be of interest to the many friends of Arthur E. Webb, for some years a resident of Carmel and having many friends here:

After an absence of nearly 10 years, Arthur E. Webb, well known "pioneer" resident of Coalinga, has been called back to active business life here, it was announced here today. Mr. Webb will become manager of the Coalinga branch of the Security-First National Bank of Los Angeles, assuming the position about April 15, as successor to Charles J. Enos, who at that time is to be transferred to the managership of the bank's Visalia branch.

A resident of Coalinga for 40 years, and a business man and property owner here almost as long, Mr. Webb is thoroughly familiar with local conditions and banking needs. His return a few weeks ago was almost coincident with the twenty-fifth anniversary of the local branch of Security-First National bank, which he took part in organizing as the First National Bank of Coalinga. Previous to its merger with the larger institution he had served as its vice president from the founding in 1908 to 1913, and was president from then until 1924. At that time he retired, leaving Coalinga to reside in Berkeley and Carmel.

Mr. Webb has seen Coalinga grow from a village of 150 inhabitants, to its present population of 3,000. He came here in 1899, when coal mining was the principal subject of "town talk", and one train a day from Fresno providing the only means of going places from here. He had come directly from London, his birthplace. His first employment was as a clerk in the general merchandising store of Simon Manessey. In 1906 he started in business for himself in the same field.

The quarter-century-old bank of which Mr. Webb again becomes manager started out in 1908 with a $50,000 capital in a space only 25x40 feet. Its ultimate merger into the Security-First National system made available for Coalinga development the resources of what is now the tenth largest bank in the United States.

In assuming his position as branch manager, Mr. Webb has made plans for re-establishing his permanent home here, and will be joined by Mrs. Webb. His son and daughter, both married, will remain respectively in Oakland and Carmel.

INTERESTING MEETING PLANNED FOR P. T. A.

An interesting meeting has been planned for the Carmel P. T. A. for next Wednesday afternoon, April 19, at 8 o'clock.

Galt Bell, producer, who is so well known in Carmel through his work in the Community Play House, will read a play.

The nominating committee will report the list of nominations for officers for the coming year.

The public is cordially invited, and urged to take an interest in the affairs of the school.

A. W. Wheldon has returned home from a ten-day visit with relatives in Pasadena and San Bernardino.

CARMEL COUPLE HONORED BY MASONIC BROTHERS

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Douglass were invited to attend a party given by the Masons at Monterey last Thursday evening. "Honoring the Masons' wives," they were told. But when the affair was under way, announcement was made that the occasion was in honor of a very special event in the life of a brother and his wife.

The Douglasses looked about them but could find no clue as to who the brother was. In no great length of time, however, they found that the party was in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary, and they were delighted by a gift of a sterling silver steak set.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglass were married in Pennsylvania but have been residents of Carmel for the past twelve years.

PORTABLE RADIO LOOKS LIKE BEAUTIFUL BOOK

The day of the unwieldy radio seems to be passing. Many new small, smart models are appearing on the market, but the cleverest the Carmel Sun reporter has seen is that shown by Mrs. Hair at Merle's Treasure Shop.

The new midget has the appearance of a beautifully bound library book. For a great volume of tone the backs are opened out and for softer tones, they are closed. They may be had in many bindings.

The radio will bring in the regular programs with a splendid tone, and it will bring in the police calls. No aerial is required, just a small cord is attached which may be thrown out the window, and the radio is plugged in, and the summer resident is "all set."

Mrs. D. E. Nixon has been quite ill but is now much improved.

Mrs. Spencer Brush of San Jose is among the Easter vacationists in Carmel.

E. Schweninger was registered this week at the Leamington Hotel in Oakland.

Mrs. Annabel Spencer, with her family, of Vancouver, is spending a fortnight in Carmel.

Miss Louise Tausche with a party of friends has taken a cottage on the point.

Mrs. Louise Beech is building a studio for her own use in the Country Club district.

Among the many Carmel visitors for the week are Mr. and Mrs. Henry Marcus of San Francisco.

Mrs. Carrie Cummings of Berkeley has been in Carmel this week looking after property here.

Miss Marie Allen of the College of the Pacific in Stockton, accompanied by a party of friends is vacationing here.

Mrs. Harrison Robinson of Oakland, with her family, is occupying Wee Hoose on San Antonio for Easter week.

Dr. and Mrs. L. C. Abbott of San Francisco are among the many who are enjoying their Easter Vacation in Carmel.

Miss Claudine Chase, owner of Carmel property, and a sufferer in the recent quake in Long Beach will arrive in Carmel Sunday for a ten-day stay.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Kent of San Francisco will arrive in Carmel to spend the week-end with Mrs. B. L. Stone and Mrs. A. G. Brown of the Betsy Ann Food Shop.

Don't fail to take a trip through the valley soon. The early spring flowers make the hills gorgeous with their bright yellows, purples and pinks. The poppies seem larger and more beautiful than ever this year.

The Norman Stevensons and their house guest from San Francisco and Mr. and Mrs. George Wishart drove down to Point Lobos Sunday and enjoyed a picnic, eating both their dinner and their supper on the beach.

The Misses Kleinschmidt, and their brother, Mr. Rynald Kleinschmidt are back in Carmel from a trip to San Francisco, where they spent two weeks. Mr. Kleinschmidt plans to leave this week for his ranch in Montana.

Mrs. Tyler Henshaw, who has been living in Pacific Grove for several months, has left for Piedmont, where she will remain for the next three months. Mrs. Henshaw has many friends in Carmel and her presence will be missed at many pleasant affairs.

Mrs. Grant Phillips received a dislocated shoulder Sunday when out riding horseback. She reached up to push a branch of a tree away and a sudden jump by her horse caused her injury. She was in company with her husband, Dr. Grant Phillips, who set the shoulder at once, but the ligaments were badly torn.

The student body of the Dominican convent at San Rafael is well represented in Carmel this week. A large group of girls whose homes are in Carmel have come home for their Easter vacation period. Among them are Eleanor Watson, daughter of Lt. Colonel and Mrs. Watson, Florence Brown, daughter of Colonel and Mrs. Ilya Jadvosky, Janet Martin and Nancy Gross.

Mrs. Jeanette Hoagland Parkes with her two children, Jeanette and Billy, and her aunt, Miss Sadie Van Brower, drove to Haleyon to visit the latter's sister, Mrs. Lura B. St. Claire. This was Miss Van Brower's first vacation from the city clerk's office in more than two years. She returned in time for the meeting Wednesday night.

TRIAL OF LADS SET FOR SATURDAY, 15TH

Trial of the young Carmel lads who are alleged to have removed a statue from the Wermouth yard the 13th of January and to have damaged the same, will be heard in Salinas Saturday, April 15th, according to notice received here the last of the week.

The Balloon dance given by the Junior Manzanitas last Friday night proved to be quite a success. A canopy was placed against the ceiling and the balloons were floating there but when the canopy was pulled down everyone made a grab. They made a pretty sight until the fun of touching them with the lighted cigarettes began.

Maurice Stoney and his High Hatters were there with the music and everyone reports a fine evening.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Leidig, Miss Jean Leidig and Miss Sue Brownell with a houseguest, returned Monday from a three-day stay at the Leidig cabin at Culp's, twenty miles up the canyon. They report that they were not at all affected by the high wind and cold which Carmel experienced during that time.
